2. S/A Cunningham explained to N [REDACTED] that S/A Cunningham was reviewing a prior interview Report of Investigation (ROI) that S/A Cunningham had completed. Upon reviewing this document, S/A Cunningham wanted to confirm that the information was correct as it related to the ATF Form 4473 which N [REDACTED] completed on behalf of Steven Lamar ADKINS. The specific transaction S/A Cunningham was interested in discussing involved the ATF Form 4473 that listed multiple Smith & Wesson .500 caliber revolvers. N [REDACTED] indicated that he recalls the incident in question and that he recalls S/A Cunningham previously inquiring about the Smith & Wesson revolvers. S/A Cunningham inquired about what happened to the Smith & Wesson .500 caliber revolvers listed on the ATF Form 4473 in question. N [REDACTED] advised that the majority of the Smith & Wesson .500 caliber revolvers were delivered to [REDACTED]. N [REDACTED] added that he believes that one or two of the Smith & Wesson .500 caliber revolvers may have been delivered to [REDACTED].
3. After receiving this information, S/A Cunningham inquired if N [REDACTED] recalled delivering a quantity of Smith & Wesson .500 caliber revolvers to [REDACTED]. At this time, S/A Cunningham had no further questions of N [REDACTED] and the telephone conversation concluded.
4. It should be noted that in ROI #13 of this case file, S/A Cunningham inadvertently misidentified [REDACTED] as being the recipient of the above described Smith & Wesson .500 caliber revolvers.
